

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, 12.7 million Canadian volunteers give their time to help others, contributing close to 2 billion volunteer hours per year; and

WHEREAS, volunteers in Stettler mentor our children, feed our hungry, comfort our lonely, beautify our green spaces, and fundraise for our charitable organizations; and

WHEREAS, volunteers in Stettler have stepped up during the COVID-19 pandemic to support families, friends, neighbours, and strangers, people standing up to systemic racism, and people sharing insights on how to create a more just and equitable society; and

WHEREAS, Stettler’s volunteers are young, old, families, workers, retirees, men and women of all ages and backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, the collective result of the work done by our town’s volunteers is that Stettler is a more desirable place to live; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sean Nolls, Mayor of Stettler, and I, Larry Clarke, Reeve of the County of Stettler do hereby proclaim April 18-24, 2021, as National Volunteer Week, and urge our fellow citizens to recognize the crucial role played by volunteers in our community.
